

OUTDOOR PURSUITS 2009

Fancy a day skiing? Two separate one-day events are being organised by Frances Adam (Monfries, 1962). These will be open to anyone who has skied before as Frances would like to lead people around the mountain. This would entail using lifts and so on.

Dates: Friday 13th and Saturday 14th March 2009 – weather and snow permitting!

The idea is that one date being mid-week is for retired folks and the Saturday is for those still in harness! Of course, you are most welcome to attend both days. Suggested times for mid-week are:

0930 hrs. at Cairngorm ticket office. Ski 'till noon.

1300 hrs. meet anyone who can only come for the afternoon.

1600 hrs. afternoon social with refreshments.

Earlier start for weekend:

0845 hrs. Otherwise similar programme.

Cost: of a day ticket is approximately £25.
